A Fine Lecture.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church held an interesting meeting last evening. The main feature was an eloquent lecture by Rov. C. B. Henthorne, of Bridgeport, on "Mistakes of the Dovil." A large audience heard it and the other enjoyable exercises.

To See the Hig Fight.

An excursion party is being gotten up here to go to the Corbett-Mitchell prize fight at Jacksonville, Fla. John Bennett has the project in charge, and has already fifteen names of good people on his list. With five more on the list the party will be able to get a very favorable round trip rate, and no doubt the requisite score will want to go.

A Former Wheeling Man Dead,

A Former Wheeling Man Dead.

Intelligence has been received here of the death at San Francisco of John McKee, a son of Redick McKee, in past days Wheeling's leading merchant. Mr. McKee was well known among the older residents. He went to California many years ago, and became a leading business man of its metropolis. He revisted the home of his youth last year and renewed old acquaintances, and his many friends will learn of his death with sincorest sorrow.

Louis Nolte, disorderly, went to the workhouse for thirty days. He recently escaped from there.

Annie Tice, keeping a house of ill fame, was fined $20 and costs, and Ella Tracy, an inmate, $5 and costs, while Charles Green, found in the house, also paid $5 and costs.

Dennis Cleary and Frank Coyle got fifteen days each as plain drunks.

Old Cases Settled.

Yesterday the clerk of the circuit court received from the Supreme Court of appeals mandates and judgments for costs in the cases of Neill & Ellingham vs. Rogers Bros.; Barnes Safe and Lock Co. vs. Bloch Bros. Tobacco Co.; T. P. Jones vs.Sincer Manufacturing Co.; Grafton Beall, administrator. vs. P., C. & St. L. Railway Company; U. S. Baking Co. vs. P. Bachmann & Sons; State vs. A. P. Brookover, et al.; John E. Clator vs. Charles Otto, and State vs. Jr M. Mines, et al. They were all entered up and the proper orders made.

HOLIDAY NOVELTIES!

It's the GREATEST DISPLAY OF WARDROBE DELICACIES we've ever made, or that you ever seen. You want to see it. We want you to see it. Every feature is a special creation to our order, Our exclusive showing is like a mammoth Christmas Tree. Our entire floot is loaded down with dainty and desirable gifts for all mankind; so easy to reache the prices hang them so low. One peep inside the door and your glance will drin a thousand answers to the perplexing question what to give. Our variety is well nigh exhaustless, our force is ample, our system is perfect, and everybody will be promptly served. Still the earlier in the week you shop the more complete you'll find the stock. The earlier in the day the less crowded you'll find the store, but early or late, the first of the week or last, you'll find us at our post, any day since the first coupons were due. The World's Fair pictures have reached most of those who left coupons for the first part, and all are pleased with them, while the other series, as shown by samples issued with yesterday's papers, are no less favorably received. All readers should save all the coupons for both series of yictures.
